Spencer CC – Captain Selection Policy - May 2024

Spencer Cricket Club (SCC) is one of the leading cricket clubs in Surrey. Our top-level aim is to be the best sustainable community cricket club in England.

As ECB Clubmark accredited, we want to be fun, fair and safe. We also acknowledge that at the heart of the Spirit of Cricket is being respectful, honest and uncompromisingly competitive. Each year SCC elects captains for the following season. These captains are elected for the following teams

- Mens 1st XI Captain
- Mens 2nd XI Captain
- Mens 3rd XI Captain
- Mens Sharks Captain
- Mens 4th XI Captain
- Earls Captain
- Mens Surrey Slam Captain
- Womens 1st XI Captain
- Womens 2nd XI Captain
- Womens Surrey Slam Captain

The election process is as follows:

- Adult chair will notify all members and obtain a list of those wishing to stand for any of the captain positions. Notifications must be made at least 30 days ahead of election date. Captaincy nominations must be received at least 7 days in advance of the election date.
- Contested elections are held in the SCC Adult End of Season Awards Evening, usually in Oct/Nov. Standing captains will have the opportunity to give an election speech on the evening.
- Standing captains are invited to canvas support and votes prior to the evening.
- Voting will take place electronically (ahead of the meeting or in person on the night of the election)
- Mens members can vote for Mens captain positions. Women members can vote for Womens captain positions
- In the event of a tied vote, the deciding vote will be held by the Adult Chair.

A member is either a fully paid up adult member or someone under 18 who has played a minimum of 3 league games in the previous season.

Spencer Managing Director is responsible for managing the process (“election officer”)

Academy 1st X1 and 2nd X1 captains are selected by Head of Junior & Boys Player Pathway and Academy Lead
